We are pleased to announce the appointment of Juha Nurminen to the partnership of Dittmar & Indrenius as of 1 January 2018.

Juha is known for his client-centric, straight-forward business attitude and dynamic project leadership skills. In addition to his LL.M. Degree from University of Helsinki, he also holds a Master's Degree in Finance from Aalto University.

"Clients come first. At Dittmar & Indrenius we put efficient project management and teamwork on center stage to provide solutions matching our clients' varied business needs. That's our Powerhouse model, the very core of our culture. I'm a team player and this is the kind of firm and culture I want to build on further."

"2017 witnessed strong M&A activity and the outlook for 2018 remains promising with a robust deal pipeline and an abundance of dry powder and strong corporate balance sheets. Juha is respected and well-liked by our clients as a business-minded professional and trusted advisor. He is also a highly liked colleague and that's why I am very happy to welcome Juha to our partnership to strengthen our Transaction Powerhouse."
